

Jennifer Beane Bio

Jonesboro, Georgia

(678) 923-9336

dcm0525@yahoo.com

Jennifer is currently the District Program Manager for the Clayton County Board of Health. She received a Master of Public Health from the University of Oklahoma and a Certificate in Non-Profit Project Management. She has over twenty years of public health experience in program development, implementation, and administration in various program areas. Additional skills include strategic planning, resource development, grant writing, training, conflict resolution, supervising/managing, marketing, and community and faith partnership development. Also, demonstrated ability to apply and interpret state and federal regulations plus secured funding of grants totaling over $15 million.