

Kimberly Brazier – Your Dedicated Loan Officer for Residential, Commercial and Small Business Loans.

Kimberly Brazier has over 14 years of experience in the financial industry and a decade in financial technology, she brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to her role as a Residential and Commercial Loan Officer. Her career has spanned working with states, municipalities, and government agencies, including tenure with the Department of Justice, Bureau of Prisons as an accountant.

Kimberly enjoys assisting families with transitioning into home ownership. Kimberly grew up in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and comes from a large military family, which taught her to always value family and community.

She is a dedicated and results-driven Loan Officer with extensive experience in residential, commercial, and small business lending. She has always been committed to helping clients achieve their financial goals through personalized and strategic loan solutions.

Kimberly is passionate about fostering strong client relationships and delivering exceptional service.

As a proud U.S. Army Veteran, she understands the unique financial needs of those who have served and is dedicated to helping them and families secure the best possible loan terms.

She is a graduate of Davenport University with a background in finance and financial technology. Currently, Kimberly is a Loan Officer with the Loan Factory, where she takes great pride in assisting many clients through the mortgage process. Her clients appreciate her meticulous attention to detail and commitment to fulfilling their aspirations in home ownership.

The goal of becoming an entrepreneur has always been in her scope, and now she is working with others instead of working for them. Outside of work, Kimberly enjoys engaging with communities and spending time with her family.

She is here to help families navigate through the mortgage process with confidence and ease.