

A professional headshot of Lora Reynaud, a woman with short, wavy brown hair, wearing a black blazer over a light pink top and a pearl necklace. She is smiling slightly and looking towards the camera. The background is a solid purple color with a large, light purple circular shape behind her head.

Lora Reynaud

Lora Reynaud is a property management and operations professional with more than twenty years of experience spanning commercial real estate, residential property management, community associations, and office administration. She currently serves as a Property Administrator with Cushman & Wakefield, where she supports a multi-building portfolio through reporting, records management, meeting coordination, contractor support, and day-to-day administrative oversight. Her prior roles include positions in compliance and covenants management, front desk leadership, project management, and document processing, consistently involving reporting to boards, maintaining organized records, and supporting policy and procedure implementation. Lora holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from Spelman College and a Paralegal Certificate from the Professional Career Development Institute.